Experience

Actor & Singer

I have worked as an actor and singer on numerous projects. I have performed in theater productions, musical events, concerts, festivals, commercials, movies, TV shows, and voice acting. I have gained experience in delivering captivating performances and adapting to different roles and genres. I have collaborated with directors, actors, and musicians to create memorable experiences. I have built a strong network of industry contacts and received positive feedback for my versatility, stage presence, and vocal abilities.

Parida LTD

Promoter & Lead | 2018 - 2021

I successfully executed catering services for various events, serving up to 500 guests per event. I maintained exceptional food quality, presentation, and service, ensuring client satisfaction. I collaborated closely with event planners, chefs, and serving staff to coordinate seamless execution of operations. I was responsible for inventory management, including monitoring and ordering supplies. I demonstrated excellent organizational and time management skills, consistently meeting tight deadlines while delivering high-quality results.

Rigoletto LTD

Catering worker | 2017 - 2020

Catered for corporate events, weddings, and private parties, serving 500 guests per event. Ensured food quality, presentation, and service met high standards. Worked closely with event planners, chefs, and staff to coordinate catering operations. Managed inventory and ordered supplies. Met deadlines while delivering high-quality results.

Education

I recently completed a Bachelor’s degree in Pop and Jazz Singing, enriched with acting training. My education focused on advanced vocaltechniques, music theory, and improvisation, alongside in-depth acting skills in character development and stage presence. I also gained experience in music production and songwriting. This blend of music and acting training has equipped me with a versatile skill set, ready for a dynamic career in the performing arts, whether on stage, in the studio, or as a voice actor.
